Death of a Non-Executive Director

It is with deep sadness that the directors of IntelliAM AI announce that Dame Julie Kenny DBE DL, a non-executive Director of the Company, passed away on 21 February after a short illness.

The Company will provide a further update in due course.

Tom Clayton, CEO, commented:

"It is with great sadness that we learned over the weekend of the passing of Dame Julie. She will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of working with her. Dame Julie was an accomplished entrepreneur and highly respected business figure who made highly valued contributions to our board's deliberations. She leaves an important legacy in business and service to the public, particularly in South Yorkshire. Our condolences go to Dame Julie's family during this very difficult and sad time."
