Doctor Care Anywhere welcomes announcement by AXA and Microsoft

Doctor Care Anywhere welcomes the recent announcement by AXA and Microsoft. Doctor Care Anywhere's established technology platform is built using Microsoft technology and deployed on the Azure Platform. The collaboration of AXA and Microsoft will enable greater integration between Doctor Care Anywhere and AXA Health in the UK, further addressing the issues created by fragmentation in global health systems.

Dr Bayju Thakar, CEO of Doctor Care Anywhere, said:

"We have a strong partnership with AXA Health in the UK and have developed a highly successful proposition which has the potential to transform the healthcare journey for millions of patients. Our unique approach to joined up primary care, diagnostics and secondary care is proving a key differentiator for AXA Health UK's customer base. The collaboration with Microsoft will allow us to access additional capabilities within one ecosystem allowing for a faster, more efficient patient care journey."

Tracy Garrad, CEO AXA Health said:

"Our joint venture approach with Doctor Care Anywhere has secured AXA Health's position in the UK as an innovator in the health insurance market and is a success story of which we are extremely proud. We're excited by the multi-functional capabilities our partnership with Microsoft brings and the long-term opportunities it gives to further enhance the Doctor@Hand service, delivered by Doctor Care Anywhere, for our members."
