IntelliAM AI Plc
('IntelliAM' or the 'Company')

First Order in USA from High-Quality Food Manufacturer

3-Site Programme

IntelliAM AI plc (AQSE: INT), the software company leveraging the power of AI and machine learning in the manufacturing industry, announces that it has received an order for IntelliAM AI platform services and sensor supplies from a high-quality food manufacturer in the USA for three of its major manufacturing sites.

The order provides for IntelliAM AI to supply software, technology support and sensors on-site which will enable the manufacturer to maximise its manufacturing efficiencies and return on investment. The work to install the IntelliAM AI systems and sensors will commence later this month. The order covers an initial period of 12 months.

Tom Clayton, CEO of IntelliAM AI, added: "This is an important new customer for IntelliAM and our first in the USA. Our respective teams have been working closely together to develop a bespoke programme of enhanced asset care deploying our AI and machine learning platforms for the three manufacturing sites."
