IntelliAM Wins Manufacturing Tech Company of the Year

IntelliAM AI plc (AQSE: INT), the software company leveraging the power of AI and machine learning in the manufacturing industry, announces that the Company has been named 'Manufacturing Tech Company of the Year' at the 2025 Business Tech Awards.

Tom Clayton, CEO of IntelliAM, commented:

"This industry recognition is a significant milestone for us. It reflects the hard work, innovation and dedication of our team, as well as the trust and support of our customers and partners.

"We are very proud to be helping manufacturers make the unknowable, knowable by turning machine data into transformational insights that boost productivity, cut downtime, and unlock new performance.

"We're also driving technology convergence - bringing together AI, machine learning and intelligent asset management - to accelerate digital change, push the boundaries of what is possible, and transform manufacturing for the future."
