News re: Draft Peace Agreement between DRC and Rwanda Announced

Rome Resources, the tin and copper explorer focussed on the DRC, notes the positive press coverage released yesterday announcing a planned signing next week of a definitive peace agreement, including joint security guarantees, by the DRC and Rwanda, which has been brokered by Qatar and the US.

This is a further positive development in the region and is likely to increase confidence in the business environment, particularly in the eastern DRC, going forward. Rome is currently operating with three drill rigs and helicopter support, augmented by supply and personnel flights into the nearby Bisie airstrip. Operations are progressing well and the company will issue a detailed update to the market in conjunction with the publication of Rome's annual statutory accounts, due before 1 July 2025.
