RareX to participate in joint Investor Webinar with Kincora Copper on Trundle Copper-Gold Project, NSW

RareX Limited (RareX or the Company) (ASX: REE) is pleased to advise that the Company's Executive Director, Jeremy Robinson, will participate in a joint Investor Webinar today (Tuesday, 9 June 2020) with its joint venture partner, Kincora Copper (TSX.V: KCC), commencing at 9.00am WST / 11.00am (AEST).

Kincora is in the midst of a drilling program at the Trundle Copper-Gold Porphyry Project, in the Lachlan Fold Belt of New South Wales. RareX has a 35% stake in the Trundle Project as well as a 9.8% stake in Kincora.

Trundle is a brownfields project located less than 30km from the world-class Northparkes Copper-Gold Mine, which has a total endowment (past production and current resources of 5.5Moz of gold and 4.5Mt of copper).

Kincora commenced its maiden 3,800m diamond drilling program at Trundle in April, with the first hole intersecting multiple mineralised zones including a near-surface high-grade gold-copper skarn and adjacent hole.

The highly-regarded Kincora management team (President and CEO Sam Spring, Technical Director John Holliday, President of Exploration Peter Leaman and Chairman Cameron McRae) will provide an update on the progress of the drilling program on the webinar, with RareX Executive Director Jeremy Robinson also providing an update on the Company's rare earths projects.

Time: 9.00am (WST) / 11.00am (AEST), Tuesday, 9 June 2020
