Mind Medicine Australia: Why med-tech firms, venture capitalists and bankers are investing in psychedelic medicine.

Global interest and investment in psychedelic medicine companies is accelerating. However, these treatments are not like typical medicines. The patient experience and clinical care model is intense and also deeply, and necessarily, intertwined. So, the question arises, how can we develop care delivery models for these treatments that are safe, effective but also commercially viable? We will explore these themes and learn from Emyria's experience creating an evidence-generating care model for medicinal cannabis.

Time: 7:25pm for 7:30pm start – 8:45pm (incl Q&A) (AEDT)

Following the presentation there will be a Q & A panel with Peter Hunt AM, Chairman and Co-founder of Mind Medicine Australia, Dr Michael Winlo, Managing Director of Emyria and Professor Alistair Vickery, Executive Medical Director of Emyria.
