Chief Financial Officer - retirement and appointment

Argo Global Listed Infrastructure (Argo Infrastructure)(ASX: ALI) announces the retirement of its Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Andrew Hill, on 31 August 2024 and the promotion of Mr. Stephen Mortimer, currently Finance Officer at Argo Investments, as his successor with effect from 1 September 2024.

Argo Infrastructure is managed by Argo Service Company Pty Ltd (ASCO), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Argo Investments (ASX: ARG). Under the terms of the management agreement, Argo Infrastructure's Chief Financial Officer is provided by ASCO and Mr. Mortimer is succeeding Mr. Hill as Chief Financial Officer of both Argo Investments and Argo Infrastructure.

Retirement of Andrew Hill

Andrew has served as Chief Financial Officer of Argo Infrastructure since its inception and ASX-listing in 2015. His diligence and detailed knowledge of investment accounting and tax has been very beneficial to the Company.

Appointment of Stephen Mortimer

Stephen joined Argo in 2012 and over the last nine years has worked closely with the Chief Financial Officer on all aspects of Argo Infrastructure's financial reporting and management. He is an experienced accountant and also manages Argo's information technology requirements.

Prior to joining Argo, Stephen worked in accounting firms Deloitte and Schulz Hobbs, providing taxation, accounting and general business advice to clients across a range of industries. He is a Certified Practising Accountant (CPA) and a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors (GAICD).
