Decidr announces partnership with Go1

Live Verdure Ltd (ASX: LV1) ("LV1", "Live Verdure" or "the Company"), via its majority-owned AI enablement platform Decidr.ai Pty Ltd ("Decidr") is pleased to announce the signing of a Partnership Heads of Agreement with Go1, one of the world's largest corporate learning platforms.

The parties have agreed to explore how Decidr can develop AI-driven learning solutions, integrating Go1's extensive learning and development (L&D) content and existing technology to create personalised career pathways and upskilling recommendations.

Highlights

- Strategic Referral Partnership with Go1 signed to explore the integration of Decidr's AI-enablement technology into AI learning solutions for one of the world's largest corporate learning platforms.
- Heads of Agreement signed for the development of Decidr AI-powered learning tools, including an AI Tutor, and an AI Learning Advisor to enhance workforce upskilling and career mobility.
- Decidr Learning & Development AI Enablement products, powered by Go1 to be distributed in the Decidr partner ecosystem, bringing additional value to ecosystem partners' customers as well as new ecosystem partner revenue opportunities.
- Partnership adds to strategic HR Domain, creating new cross-selling opportunities for existing partners as well as new Agentic products and services.

Partnership with Go1

About Go1

Founded in 2015, Go1 is a leading corporate learning platform that aggregates diverse educational content from over 250 industry-leading providers. Serving a global clientele, Go1 offers a vast library of more than 90,000 courses, encompassing approximately 9.8 million learning objects, to facilitate employee training and development across various industries.

Customer Base and Market Reach

Go1 caters to a wide range of organizations, from small businesses to large enterprises. Over 10,000 companies worldwide utilise Go1's learning management system, with a significant presence in the United States, Australia, and the United Kingdom. Notable clients include multinational corporations such as WestPac, Delta Airlines, and Metro Trains.

Key Components of the Agreement

This partnership will explore Decidr developing AI-driven learning solutions, integrating Go1's extensive learning and development (L&D) content and technology to create personalized career pathways and upskilling recommendations.

1. AI Tutor: Decidr will develop an AI-powered tutor that curates customised learning playlists using Go1's learning & development library, helping employees bridge skill gaps and advance their careers.
2. AI Tutor for Job Seekers: A job-focused AI tool embedded in ecosystem partners, providing tailored upskilling recommendations to job seekers based on their career aspirations.
3. AI Learning Advisor: A tool to quantify the ROI of upskilling candidates, allowing hiring managers to compare the cost of training vs. the expected value of hiring.

David Brudenell, Executive Chairman, commented:
"This initial agreement with Go1 is another significant step in Decidr's expansion into the workforce enablement space. By integrating AI-powered learning and career progression tools into Go1's market-leading platform, we are shaping the future of AI-driven upskilling and career mobility. This collaboration aligns with our vision of the Agentic Web, where AI empowers businesses and individuals to make smarter, more strategic decisions."

Outlook

Decidr's strategic partnerships with Go1, ELMO, The Growth Faculty and CareerOne create an exciting new Agentic Ecosystem and reinforce its position as a leader in AI-driven workforce enablement, aligning with LV1's broader AI strategy. The Company remains focused on executing its Agentic Web vision, expanding AI-powered solutions across HR, recruitment, corporate learning and other industries.

As the co-created products are being built to deploy, including their pricing and go-to-market plans, it is currently not possible to estimate the immediate financial impact on Decidror the Company. There is no other material information relevant to assessing the impact of the strategic partnerships on the price or value of the Company's securities.

LV1 looks forward to updating shareholders on further developments as Decidr continues to scale its AI partnerships.
