Market commentary

Global infrastructure stocks began the new financial year on a positive note, gaining +2.1% in A$ terms. Broader equity markets also delivered gains, with global equities up +3.1% and Australian equities up +2.4%, despite ongoing trade tensions and macroeconomic volatility.

Pleasingly, Argo Infrastructure's portfolio outperformed its benchmark delivering +2.5%. A key contributor was an overweight position in US-based gas utility NiSource. Its share price was boosted by progress on a regulatory proposal in Indiana that would grant the company a higher return for serving data centre customers. According to our portfolio manager, Cohen & Steers, the growth potential from data centre demand is not yet fully priced into NiSource's valuation.

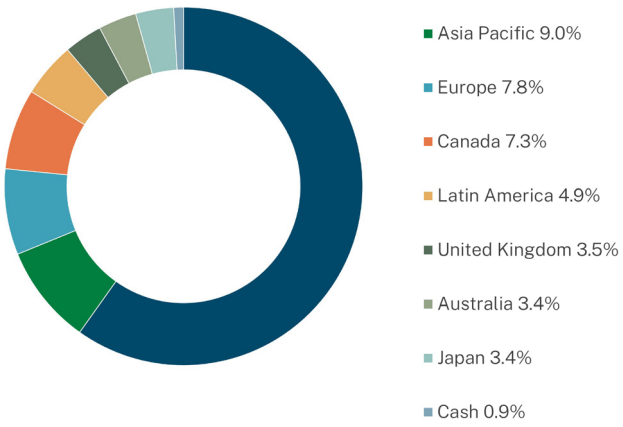

Argo Infrastructure will report its full year result on 25 August 2025. For more information, see the Key Dates section in our Shareholder Centre: argoinfrastructure.com.au/shareholder-centre.
