Court Dismisses Xingye's Application for Urgent Final Hearing

Share Purchase Plan Remains Open

Far East Gold Limited (ASX: FEG) advises that the Supreme Court of New South Wales has dismissed an application by Xingye Gold (Hong Kong) Mining Company Limited (Xingye) for an urgent final hearing of part of its claims against the Company. No orders have been made restraining FEG's Share Purchase Plan (SPP), which remains open.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Xingye's application dismissed: On 11 November 2026, the Court dismissed Xingye's application to have some of its claims separated and determined at an urgent final hearing in the week commencing 16 November 2026.
- No orders restraining the SPP: The Court has not made any order preventing FEG from proceeding with the SPP. The SPP remains open and is scheduled to close at 5:00pm (Sydney time) on Friday, 20 November 2026.
- No change to the Board: No orders have been made affecting the composition of the FEG Board or the resolutions passed by shareholders at the general meeting held on 21 October 2026.
- Next step: Following the dismissal, Xingye informed the Court that it will apply for interlocutory injunctive relief. That application is listed for hearing on Friday, 20 November 2026.

The Court made no order restraining the SPP or any other equity raising by FEG, and no order affecting the composition of the Board.

Share Purchase Plan continues

The SPP remains open to eligible shareholders at A$0.10 per share and is scheduled to close at 5:00pm (Sydney time) on Friday, 20 November 2026, in accordance with the timetable announced on 3 November 2026.

FEG will update the market promptly if there is any change to this position following the interlocutory hearing.

Far East Gold Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer Shane Menere commented:

"The Company's capital raising continues, and the Board remains focused on funding and advancing our projects for the benefit of all shareholders.

We will continue to respond to these proceedings through the Court process, and we thank our shareholders for their ongoing support."
