Sam Garrett, Chief Executive Officer of Great Southern Copper, said: "We are delighted to announce our successful fundraise and listing on the London Stock Exchange. With copper set to play a vital role as economies around the world transition from fossil fuels to sustainable energy, we look forward to advancing our two exciting copper-gold exploration projects in Chile, the largest copper producing country in the world.

"The London listing and support we received from investors is a great endorsement of the potential of our projects, the Company's strategy and management team. I would like to welcome our new investors as we embark on this exciting stage of our journey, and we look forward to updating them and the wider market as we progress with our exploration campaigns in Chile."
