Aurrigo International plc
Agreement with Changi Airport Group

Aurrigo International plc (AIM: AURR, the "Company" or "Aurrigo"), a leading international provider of technology solutions, is pleased to announce that, as anticipated in the Company's Admission Document, it has now signed the agreement with Changi Airport Group (Singapore) Pte Ltd ("CAG") for the next phase of development of the Auto-Dolly, the Company's innovative baggage transportation solution for airports. This phase will entail technology trials of the Auto-Dolly on an aircraft stand at Singapore Changi Airport and will last for approximately 6 months.

Prof. David Keene, CEO of Aurrigo, commented:

"We are delighted to have finalised the formal agreement with CAG and now our team in Singapore can begin work on this phase. We have made great progress with the development of the Auto-Dolly since it was deployed at Changi in February and we look forward to providing further updates in the first half of 2023".
