SRI Research Update

N4 Pharma Plc (AIM: N4P), the specialist pharmaceutical company developing Nuvec®, a novel delivery system for cancer treatments, gene therapy and vaccines, is pleased to provide a further update on its work with SRI International ("SRI").

Further to the Company's announcement on 20 August 2024, the Company has now successfully demonstrated that the selected cargo, when combined with Nuvec® and SRI's Fox Three Molecular Guidance System ("MGS"),is performing as expected and has therefore completed the first stage of its collaboration project with SRI. More information will be released soon.

Nigel Theobald, Chief Executive Officer of the Company, commented:

"We have now shown that not only is Nuvec®capable of modification with a ligand to target specific cells, but also that the combined new Nuvec® nanoparticle retains its ability to knockdown the target gene.

"We will add this information to our combined marketing pitch deck and both SRI and N4 Pharma will present this data and its implications to major pharma and biotech players that need a targeting delivery system for their nucleic acid programs."

About N4 Pharma
N4 Pharma is a specialist pharmaceutical company developing a novel delivery system for oncology, gene therapy and vaccines using its unique silica nanoparticle delivery system called Nuvec® and Liptide, a unique peptide/lipid delivery system via its subsidiary Nanogenics.

N4 Pharma's business model is to partner with companies developing products in these fields to use Nuvec® or Liptide® as the delivery vehicle for these products. As these products progress through pre clinical and clinical programs, N4 Pharma will seek to receive upfront payments, milestone payments and ultimately royalty payments once products reach the market.
