Update research note published by Allenby Capital

Rome Resources Plc (AIM: RMR), the Democratic Republic of Congo-focused tin and base metals explorer, highlights the publication of a new research note by Allenby Capital, Rome Resources' joint broker and adviser, on 6 May 2026, titled "Bullish Backdrop".

The note reviews Rome Resources' recent operational and corporate progress at its Bisie North project including:

- the latest drilling programme at Kalayi where wider and higher-grade tin intercepts at depth continue to support the Company's evolving structural model;
- Rome Resources' proposed increase in ownership interest across the Bisie North licences, increasing its attributable exposure to future resource growth; and
- the upcoming Mineral Resource Estimate update, alongside further planned exploration activity including airborne geophysics and additional drilling.

The full research note is available on Allenby Capital's website at:
