Nativo Resources PLC

("Nativo" or the "Company")

Extension of Warrant Exercise Period

Nativo Resources PLC (AIM: NTVO), the precious metals company with gold mining and processing interests in Peru, announces that the Board has approved a 12-month extension to the exercise period of 77,777,778 outstanding warrants (the "Warrants"), originally issued in connection with the Company's placing and subscription announced on 24 September 2025.

The Warrants, which are held by 11 warrant holders, have an exercise price of 0.45 pence per ordinary share and were originally due to expire on 8 October 2026.

In view of the limited exercise period under the original terms of the Warrants, the Board has approved a 12-month extension to their expiry date, from 8 October 2026 to 8 October 2027. The necessary legal documentation to effect the extension has now been completed. All other terms of the Warrants remain unchanged.

About Nativo Resources PLC

Nativo aims to establish itself as a vertically integrated gold mining and processing business in Peru. The Company's strategy is based on developing three core activities: primary gold mining, gold ore processing, and the recovery of gold from tailings. The Company has already acquired or optioned several projects for development and has identified additional opportunities for expansion. Nativo's nearest-term objectives are to establish gold production and develop the La Patona Gold Ore Processing Plant to process Nativo's own and third-party material.
